We seek to customize and tailor all of our projects to unique markets or client needs. We view each project as an opportunity to create something special and we are attuned to the finest details of a bespoke product.

- / Handpicked materials
- / Exquisite finishes
- / Exceptional lighting
- / Thoughtful detailing
- / Home automation

EURO PROPERTIES

Through related subsidiaries, we have been active in the property market for over 20 years. We specialize in the development and marketing of prime residential and mixed-use projects with a focus on exceptional design and first-class execution. We are a boutique property company. In addition to working on behalf of our clients and investors, we continue to design and build our own developments around the world.

Midtown Manhattan, New York

We are inspired by art and culture from around the world. With our roots in Asia, we also draw upon sensibilities from the region to bring fresh perspectives to each of our developments.

We strive for creativity and to challenge the status quo in residential real estate. In creating truly distinctive features for our developments, we seek to innovate and to discover what has not been done before.

Equally important are the interior space planning and gracious layout designs that reflect the true comforts of a home. Personalized services, amenities and resident programming are carefully considered alongside other ways for us to cater to our end-users and enhance their living experience.
